The explanation offered by Mitra is not quite convincing. The title of Maharaja is boldly put forward in a book of Sanskrit apparently published by the Mall. It is however something that the Mitra people attempt to explain it as two words Maha and Raja, the latter going with the next word Nirañjana. On the other hand the term Rajanirañjana seems to be meaningless. Nirañjana is reported to signify 'free from sin and virtue' i.e. a mukta. Can Mitra make out what is intended to be conveyed by prefixing Raja to the word. However this is a matter with which we need not concern ourselves.

Put up a draft regarding the report after D.C. comments. No further action appears to be called for

S i r,

With reference to your letter No.1073/Muz. 184-16 dated the 1st November 1916 forwarding for disposal or report a petition from D. Seshar maya and others of Turuvekere, alleging that certain objectionable titles have been imported in the matter adopted for the arches of welcome erected in connection with the visit to the place of the Swamigalu on Durgi Matha, I have the honour to state that the Deputy Amildar of Turuvekere states in his report No.166 dated the 6th instant that no Gandaberunda designs were placed on the arches, the words 'His Highness the Maharaja" had not been written but only "H. H. the Sriman Maha ---- Rajaniramiana Jagadguru" &c., and that the local people did not raise any objection.

The report and the petition are herewith forwarded for reference. The orders of Government as regards this Swamigalu are clear and well-understood, but several petitions have nevertheless been received from the important stations visited by him.
